The Disastrous Pontificate Dominic J Grigio

In a time when the Deposit of Faith demands unwavering guardianship, this book stands as a solemn act of fidelity to the apostolic charge on all the faithful: to preserve the integrity of faith and morals for the sake of the salvation of souls. Spanning the breadth of sacred doctrine, it rigorously juxtaposes the teachings of Pope Francis with Sacred Scripture, Sacred Tradition, and the perennial Magisterium.

978 1 96530 359 7 876 pages £24.99

Liturgical Institutions Prosper Guéranger

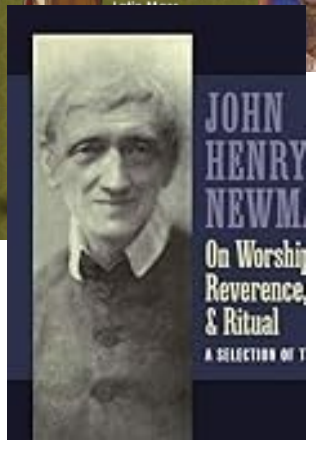

An erudite and impassioned history of the Roman Rite and of the depredations it has suffered over the centuries at the hands of "anti-liturgical heretics" whose lineage is by no means exhausted. A comprehensive vision of Catholic worship, incomparably defining and defending the rites - and rights - of sacred tradition.

John Henry Newman on Worship, Reverence & Ritual

This volume gathers over seventy texts from a large number and wide range of Newman's writings, including forty-four of Newman's incomparably great sermons in full. That Newman deserves his reputation as one of the finest spiritual writers of modern times and the greatest prose stylist of nineteenth-century England is abundantly demonstrated in these spirited and subtle reflections on the duty of reverence, the benefits of ritual, and the privilege of divine worship.

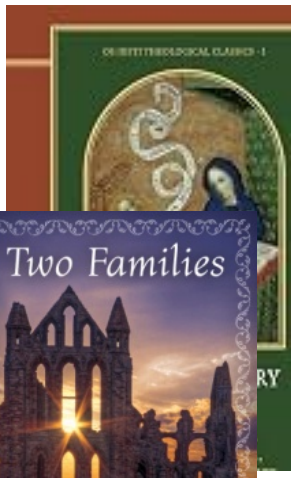

978 1 96071 120 5 526 pages £19.99

Prayers in Honour of St Thomas Aquinas Thomas O'Sullivan

This prayer book gathers together the finest prayers in honour of the Church's most eminent theologian.

The Virgin Mary as New Eve John Henry Newman

Originally written as a rebuttal to Edward Pusey's polemical treatise on the obstacles to Canterbury's reunion with Rome, this has been described as one of the pearls of Marian theology of the nineteenth century. It 'displays not only his lively supernatural faith but also his panoply of natural gifts: scholarship, historical imagination, precision, the ability to produce illuminating analogies, and what may be called a gentlemanly toughness of mind.' (From the introduction by Fr Thomas Crean.)

978 1 96530 316 0 162 pages £13.99

Two Families Joseph Bevan

'Wise, amusing, and beautifully written. . . Bevan is candid and incisive in his analysis, offering much-needed hope and guidance not only to Catholic families but to all Catholics serious about their faith.' Edward Pentin, National Catholic Register

The Four Men: A Farrago Hilaire Belloc

Four pilgrims meet in a pub in Sussex and decide to walk from one end of the county to the other. 'This farrago includes all that one could want of poetic descriptions of the land and Belloc's own pencil sketches of it mingled with the jokes, songs, stories, and profundities for which Belloc is justly famous.' David Deavel

Torches Against the Abyss Rev J A Perricone

In an age of confusion, one priest lights the way. In this thunderous collection of essays Rev John A Perricone confronts the spiritual collapse of our times with razor-sharp prose and an unwavering fidelity to Catholic tradition. This is not a book for the faint of heart; it is a torch raised aloft for those willing to see and to fight.

'Fr Perricone stands as a steadfast herald of Christ's immurable doctrine and the luminous beauty of Sacred Tradition.' Bishop Athanasius Schneider

Selections from the Little Flowers of St Francis of Assisi

Written in the fourteenth century, these stories bring us face-to face with the real saint and his followers: radical, ascetic mystics. The text is graced with artwork from a rare 1921 German edition, 8 full page colour illustrations and 19 black and white drawings.

978 1 96530 362 7 116 pages £15.50

A Liberal Revolution Hanel Bianchi

The claim that the Church 'embraced the modern world' after Vatican II is well known; this book reconstructs how the Council was implemented and experienced on the diocesan level, in the Archdiocese of Baltimore. It does not only contribute to the scholarly understanding of Vatican II and its aftermath but also offers guidance to Catholics seeking a path toward genuine renewal, grounded in a thorough and accurate assessment of what actually happened.

Clothed with Beauty Anna Kalinowska

For decades, the Catholic conversation on dress has decried the loss of decency in today's fashions. However, indecency is just one symptom of the ravaging disease that has made our world a sartorial wasteland. This disease is a hatred of beauty and a glorification of ugliness. It is time for Catholics to demand something better.Written for anyone interested in cultivating beauty in everyday life, Clothed With Beauty provides concrete artistic instruction.
